

A peer meeting on Linking knowledge domains

Theme: Business knowledge in development

Date: Tuesday 3 April 2012

Time: 15.30-17.00

Location: Hivos, Raamweg 16, 2596 HL Den Haag, The Netherlands

<http://www.hivos.nl/eng/Contact/Route>

Theme:

Given the differing drives and incentives in terms of knowledge production and use of business and the domains of science, policy-making and practice, how can actors reach out and bridge these to achieve win-win situations? What can be processes of engagement? What are possible pitfalls and tensions? What can be potential (new or changing) roles and tasks of different actors including government agencies?

15.30 Opening and welcome Josine Stremmelaar, Hivos

15.40 Brief introductions by participants

15.45 Presentation by Dr Patricia Wagenmakers

 ‘Linking policy and business knowledge: the Knowledge Unit of the Dutch Ministry of Economic Affairs, Agriculture and Innovation (ELI)’

16.15 Discussion

17.00 Close of meeting Wenny Ho

Borrel/drinks

To register, please send an email to Joke Keuning jkeuning@hivos.nl

For more information: <https://linkingknowledgedomains.wordpress.com>